Give the Gift of Art & Help Local Artists When You Shop the Artist Relief Fund Benefit Sale

Proceeds Benefit the Greater Nashville Artist Relief Fund

NASHVILLE, TENN. – October 26, 2020 -- Get in the holiday spirit by giving two gifts in one! The Arts & Business Council of Greater Nashville has launched an online benefit in support of the Greater Nashville Artist Relief Fund. Discover one-of-a-kind gifts including paintings, handmade jewelry, photography sessions, apparel, classes and more. These items make great gifts for your loved ones and proceeds support local artists in need of assistance.

To date, the Artist Relief Fund has supported 85 local artists experiencing financial hardship from the cancellation of scheduled gigs or opportunities due to the March 3 tornados and/or COVID-19 precautionary measures. Proceeds from the Relief Fund Benefit will go to support the Fund in order to provide additional grants, up to $500, to qualified artists.

About the Greater Nashville Artist Relief Fund

The Artist Relief Fund is designed to help sustain artists in Greater Nashville during times of difficulty, uncertainty, and loss. The Fund is open to all artists, at all levels of their careers, in a broad variety of disciplines, and supplies money to help self-employed artists, and artists employed/contracted by nonprofit arts and culture organizations in Greater Nashville, recover from lost income due to the cancellation of scheduled gigs or opportunities (such as a commission, performance, contract, etc.), or due to layoff or furlough due to the March 3 tornados and/or COVID-19 precautionary measures. In the future, the Fund will continue to exist to help cover unexpected expenses directly resulting from catastrophic, career-threatening events such as theft, fire, flood, or health emergency.
