

Volunteer Lawyers & Professionals for the Arts

Legal Internship

ABC's Volunteer Lawyers & Professionals for the Arts (VLPA) program accepts résumés for legal interns during the school year and over the summer. VLPA interns have opportunities to gain hands-on experience helping artists and emerging arts nonprofit organizations with a variety of legal and professional issues.

This internship includes opportunities to:

- Perform client interviews and intakes
- Participate in client meetings
- Research and draft memoranda on a variety of legal issues
- Draft and review contracts
- Assist in educational seminars on legal and business topics for the arts community

Work Schedule

During the semester, flexible hours will be arranged with the student's schedule, with a minimum commitment of 8 hours per week. These hours will fall within the regular business hours of 9 am to 5 pm. Summer internships are a minimum six-week commitment.

Applications for spring internships are due by October 30.

Applications for summer internships are due by February 15.

Applications for fall internships are due by March 31.

Salary/Course Credit

This is an unpaid internship and does not guarantee employment upon completion. We will work with your school to meet the requirements for receiving field placement/externship credit, if possible. The student is responsible for securing and coordinating all information to obtain academic credit.

How to apply
