

Arts Board Matching

ATTORNEYS & BUSINESS PROFESSIONALS NEEDED!

SUPPORT NASHVILLE'S ARTS NONPROFITS, STRENGTHEN YOUR LEADERSHIP SKILLS, AND NETWORK WITH PEERS

ABOUT ARTS BOARD MATCHING

The Arts & Business Council of Greater Nashville is recruiting dynamic professionals, especially lawyers and business experts, to bring valuable skills to local arts organizations. Through our Arts Board Matching training program, participants gain essential skills in board leadership, legal and fiduciary responsibilities, fundraising and advocacy while connecting directly with nonprofits that need strategic guidance.

This six-week program includes:

- Four focused training sessions in Sept./Oct. 2025
- Networking mixer and interactive Matching Event
- Open to current and aspiring board members

HOW TO APPLY

Empower Nashville's arts community. Apply now!

PROGRAM PARTNER

We're now accepting applications for Fall 2025.
Early applications are due by July 13. The regular deadline is August 10.

For details and application, visit: abcnashville.org.

The participation fee is $1,000 for business professionals ($850 for early applicants) seeking to be matched with an arts organization for board service. Current board members can join the training for $500 ($425 for early applicants) if their nonprofit is a member of the Arts & Business Council. Many participants have their fees covered by their employers, but some pay themselves.

Sponsorships are also available, which include the opportunity for employees of the sponsor to participate in the program at no cost. Contact us at info@abcnashville.org for sponsorship details.
